How it Works

Scenario - 1

Mr. Suraj, aged 35 years, non-smoker, buys Shriram Life Comprehensive Cancer Care Insurance plan for regular premium payment option of 10years. The coverage option chosen by him was Lump sum Option .He was diagnosed with Initial Stage Cancer in 5th Policy year & later was diagnosed with Critical stage of Cancer in 9thth Policy Year. The following are the benefits received by him.

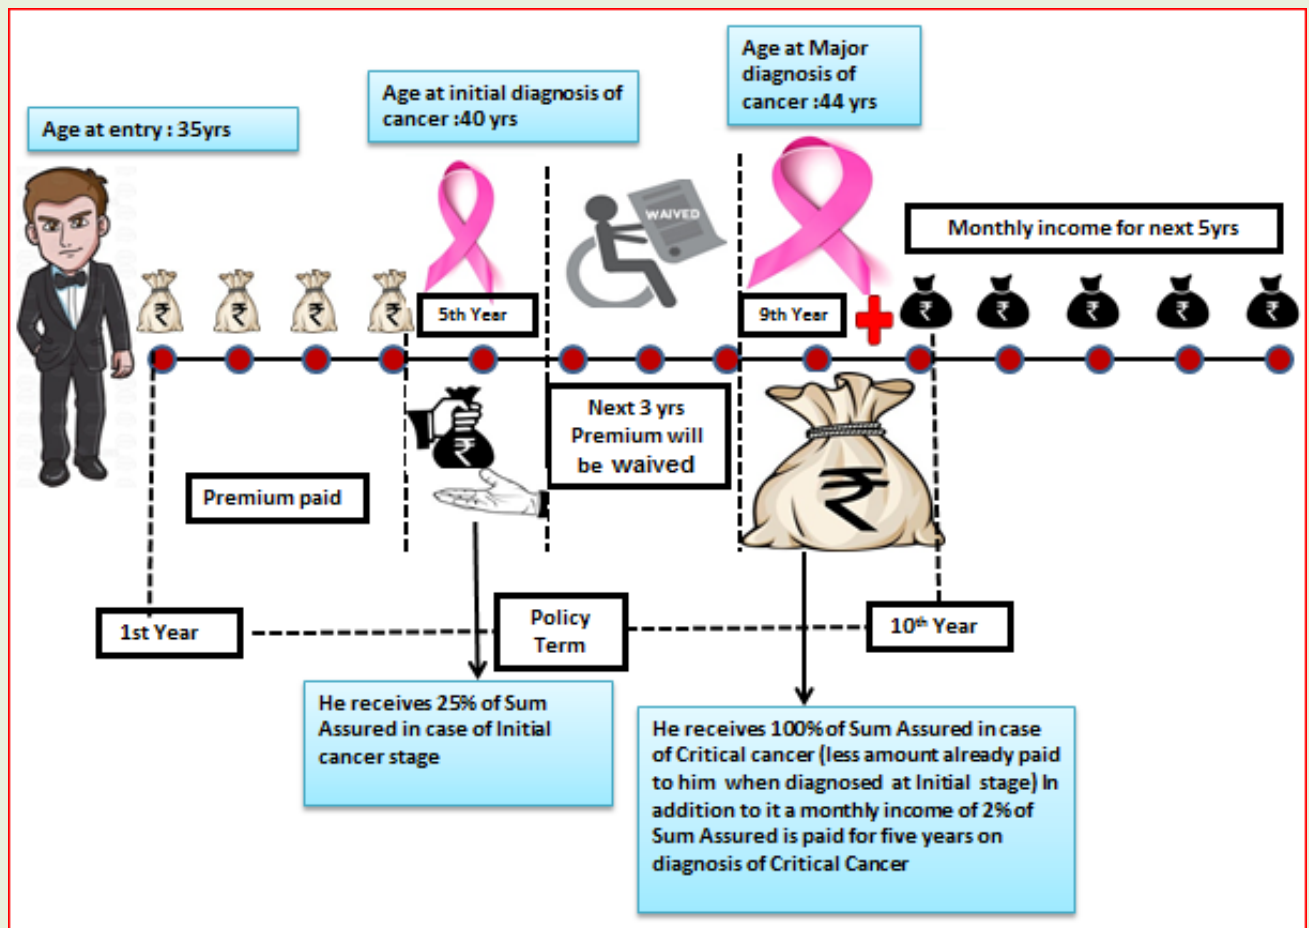

Let us look at the benefits received by him if he opts for Lump sum Option through the below illustrated graphical representation.

Scenario -2

Mr. Suraj, aged 35 years, non-smoker, buys Shriram Life Cancer Care Insurance plan for regular premium payment option of 10years. The coverage option chosen by him was Lump sum + Monthly Income Option .He was diagnosed with Intial Stage Cancer in 5th Policy year & later was diagnosed with Critical stage of Cancer in 9thth Policy Year. The following are the benefits received by him.

Let us look at the benefits received by him through the below illustrated graphical representation.

Waiting Period

The waiting period of 180 days is applicable from the date of commencement or the date of revival whichever is later.

No benefit will be payable if there is diagnosis of any stage of cancer or any signs or symptoms related to any stage of cancer within 180 days from either the date of commencement of the policy or date of revival whichever is later.

Survival Period

7 days between the date of diagnosis of a condition and the date of the eligibility for a benefit payment would be applicable.

A cancer claim is payable subject to fulfilling all of the below criteria

- 7 days survival period from the date of diagnosis
- Signs and symptoms relevant to the cancer should have been present and documented before death

All investigations to confirm the diagnosis of cancer should have been done before the death of the insured.

Loans

Loan facility is not available under this plan

Surrender Value

No surrender value is applicable under the plan

Grace period

Grace period is allowed for payment of premiums. If the premiums are not paid within the due date, the policyholders are allowed to pay premiums within 30 days from the date of first unpaid premium.

If a valid claim arises under the policy during the grace period, but before the payment of due premium, the claim will be honored. In such cases, the due premium will be deducted from the benefit payable

Lapse

In the event of non- payment of due premiums before the expiry of the grace period the policy will lapse. The cover will cease and no benefits will be payable.

Revival / Reinstatement Period

A lapsed policy can be revived with in a revival period of two years from the date of first unpaid premium as per Board approved underwriting policy by paying all outstanding premiums (from date of first unpaid premium to date of revival) together with interest at a rate as approved by IRDAI. The revival interest rate shall be changed in future only after prior approval from IRDAI.

Renewal of policy

If the policyholder has successfully completed the original term of the policy without any critical stage cancer claim, then the policyholder has the option to renew the policy within 30 days from the date of expiry of original policy term. Please refer to policy document for more information.

Free Look Period

On receipt of Policy document, the Policyholder should review the Terms and Conditions of the Policy. In case Policyholder is not satisfied with Terms and Conditions as stated in the Policy, he has an option to return the Policy to the Company within 30 days of its receipt, with a written request for cancellation, stating reasons for the same. On such cancellation of the Policy, the Company will refund the premium after deducting stamp duty charges.

Premium Guarantee

The premiums are guaranteed for a period of three years from the date of issue. Upon the completion of three policy years, the premiums may be revised subject to IRDAI's approval. Any revision in the premium rates shall be notified to policyholder at least three months prior to the date of such revision. Premium rates, if revised, shall be guaranteed to the policyholder for a subsequent period of three years from the date of revision. Premium revision will be based on overall claims experience and not on individual claims experience basis after prior approval from IRDAI.

Sum insured rebates/discounts

The discounts are offered for high sum assured policies in the form of lower premiums. The separate premium rate tables are applicable for different sum assureds.

Rebates/charges for different modes

The charges for different modes are given below.

Where premium are paid in other than yearly mode, the annual premium will be multiplied by the appropriate modal factor as shown below:

Mode	Half Yearly	Quarterly
Factor	0.5076	0.2557

Portability

The policy is portable and policyholder can initiate action to approach another insurer well before the renewal date to avoid any break in the policy coverage.

“Portability” means the right accorded to an individual health insurance policyholder (including family cover), to transfer the credit gained for pre-existing conditions and time bound exclusions, from one insurer to another or from one plan to another plan of the same insurer.

Nomination

Provided the policyholder is the life assured, he / she may, at any time before the policy matures for payment, nominate a person or persons as per Sec 39 of the Insurance Act 1938 as amended from time to time, to receive the policy benefits in the event of his / her death.

Additional Information:

Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time

No person shall allow, or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses, or tables of the insurer.

Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bonafide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be liable for penalty which may extend to ten lakh rupees.

Section 45 of the insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time

(1) No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e. from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later.

(2) A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud.

Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer:

Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policy holder is not alive.

(4) A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued:

Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based:

Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
